GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS RICHEY TO MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY LICENSURE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Pamela Richey of Durham to the North Carolina Marriage and Family Therapy Licensure Board.

Richey is a licensed marriage and family therapist at Therapy Services for Families, PC. She is a clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapists and the American Society of Reproductive Medicine. Richey received the David and Vera Mace Award from the N.C. Association of Marriage and Family Therapy in 2005. She received her Bachelor's degree in nursing from UNC at Chapel Hill and a Master's degree from East Carolina University.

The board ensures that the public has a means of protecting itself from unprofessional, improper, unauthorized and unqualified use of certain titles by persons who practice marriage and family therapy. The board has seven members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
